

Questions on II Peter

Chapter I

1. How does Peter address the readers of the epistle?
2. Compare this with previous epistle.
3. Does God give faith as direct gift?
4. Where is God's righteousness revealed?
5. Would that be the place to learn of such?
6. Grace and peace come through what knowledge?
7. Is grace in proportion to our knowledge?
8. What is God's power to salvation?
9. State what this power gives us.
10. What knowledge is necessary to receive these?
11. State what are given to us by this means.
12. This will let us partake of what?
13. What escape is referred to here?
14. Is this all that is necessary?
15. What quality must accompany our adding?
16. To what are we told to add?
17. Why add anything to it if it is perfect?
18. Give another name for virtue as used here.
19. We must add knowledge of what?
20. Does temperance mean moderate use of drink?
21. Patient in what circumstances?
22. How may we recognize godliness?
23. Show difference between brotherly kindness and other.
24. What is meant by charity?
25. Cite case where word cannot mean liberality.
26. In what place must these things be?
27. Should they remain in us?
28. What should these things make us become?
29. Could a tree be unfruitful yet not barren?
30. Who is the blind man?
31. What has he forgotten?
32. Compare this thought with Heb. 2: 1.
33. What quality of verse 5 is repeated?
34. Name the two things we can make sure.
35. To what phases of our obedience do these refer?

36. On what condition may we never fall?
37. Does this teach "once in grace always in grace"?
38. Into what will we be admitted?
39. How does that differ from the Church?
40. How generous will be this admittance?
41. Compare this with 1 Peter 4: 18.
42. Had these brethren ever learned this before?
43. State the purpose for repeating it.
44. Explain "present truth" verse 12.
45. What is "this tabernacle," verse 13?
46. By what would he stir them up?
47. Is such stirring beneficial today?
48. What does he expect to occur shortly?
49. Where did he get this information?
50. Explain "decease" in verse 15.
51. What does he here disclaim to have followed?
52. To what degree was he a witness?
53. What occasion is he writing about?
54. From where did the voice come?
55. What does he have in addition to this vision?
56. How does he here illustrate prophecy?
57. Why such a comparison? See verse 20.
58. Why were the prophets somewhat in the dark?
59. How did the prophecy not come?
60. Then how could they prophesy according to surety?

Chapter 2

1. Were all prophets of the true kind?
2. Did their kind die with them?
3. What will they bring in?
4. In what manner will they do this?
5. To what length will they go in their teaching?
6. What will this bring upon themselves?
7. Will they have any following?
8. What evil speaking will result?
9. State the motive of this movement.
10. What is meaning of "feigned words"?
11. Tell what is about to come upon them.
12. Can angels sin?
13. What did God do with certain angels?

14. To what are they reserved?
15. Is there any plan for their redemption?
16. What was the "old world" in verse five?
17. Noah and how many others were saved?
18. What was the matter with Sodom and Gomorra?
19. State what was made of them.
20. What kind of man was Lot?
21. Does this apply after moving to Sodom?
22. Did he prevent the wickedness of Sodom?
23. How could he be considered just?
24. To what extent did he fret over the evil?
25. What deliverance will God give the righteous?
26. Does this mean he will prevent temptations?
27. When will the unjust be punished?
28. Will any "get their hell in this life"?
29. How do the unrighteous walk?
30. State their attitude towards being ruled.
31. How do they dare to speak?
32. Whose will do these wish to follow?
33. To what characters is reference made here?
34. How should their example shame others?
35. Of what things do these evil ones speak?
36. To what transient creatures are they compared?
37. What is to be their miserable end?
38. Whose reward will they receive?
39. Describe their character among others.
40. State the character of their eyes.
41. From what cannot they cease?
42. How do they affect unstable ones?
43. Tell what exercise they practice.
44. What kind of a generation are they?
45. Whose way do they follow?
46. Tell the motive of such ways.
47. How was Balaam rebuked?
48. What sort of humiliation does this imply?
49. How useful is a well without water?
50. What is the comparison here?
51. Tell what is reserved for all such.
52. By what means do they do their alluring?
53. Through what nature do they succeed?

54. What class can they allure?
55. Tell what they promise as an inducement.
56. Show their inconsistency at the same time.
57. What will make things worse than in the beginning?
58. State what would have been better.
59. Then should men hesitate from becoming saved?
60. What comparison is made in last verse?

Chapter 3

1. State the purpose of the second epistle.
2. Do men need being reminded today?
3. Consider this with Heb. 2: 1.
4. Of whose words is he specially speaking now?
5. What days are referred to?
6. Give a meaning of scoff.
7. After what principles do these walk?
8. What promise do they mock at?
9. Who are the fathers in 4th verse?
10. Did they state the truth in this verse?
11. Did they know whereof they spoke?
12. What kind of ignorance did they have?
13. To what is reference made by "heavens," verse 5?
14. Where is this "word of God" recorded?
15. Cite the record for last part of 5th verse.
16. What world is meant in 6th verse?
17. State the circumstance meant in this passage?
18. Was the earth destroyed at this time?
19. Is it to be destroyed in the future?
20. Will it be destroyed by a flood?
21. Can you answer above question from Genesis?
22. On what day will the earth be destroyed?
23. State the meaning of perdition.
24. Will it be same day the earth is destroyed?
25. Does this give promise of another chance for unsaved?
26. Why the comparison in 8th verse?
27. State the duration of the next life.
28. Subtract one day from it and what is left?
29. Subtract 1000 years and what is left?
30. Would this explain verse 8?
31. Instead of slackness what is God showing?

32. What is he not willing for?
33. Will some perish anyway?
34. Explain how God's will is not always done.
35. What is to come as a thief?
36. Why the comparison?
37. What shall pass away at that day?
38. Tell what is to melt.
39. What will happen to the earth?
40. Is this same earth as verse 5 and 7?
41. What is to happen to all these things?
42. State the exhortation of the apostle here.
43. To what should we anxiously look?
44. Find the promise mentioned in 13th verse.
45. Distinguish the new earth from present one.
46. What kind of persons shall inherit new earth?
47. Why speak of heavens and earth as our new home?
48. Will the new home be spiritual only?
49. From what is the imagery drawn?
50. Give a reason for making such drawing.
51. For what reason should we be diligent?
52. How should we consider longsuffering of God?
53. To what does he ascribe Paul's writings?
54. On what subject had he written?
55. What class will wrest his writings?
56. May they all be understood?
57. Of what should we beware?
58. This might cause what kind of fall?
59. Instead, what should we do?
60. What must grow along with grace?