PREFACE

I suppose that every preacher has at one time or the other thought of having published a book of sermons. The value of sermon outline books are varied. Some view them with disdain and say those who would buy and use such are simply lazy and not willing to think for themselves. Some have a sincere appreciation for the work done by others and from them build lessons to the glory of God and the salvation of those who would hear and obey the Word as it is preached. Regardless of how one might view sermon outlines by others, if these assist anyone in developing a thought that will lead a precious soul to Jesus Christ, then the time spent will have been well worth it.

IF I HAD JUST ONE MORE SERMON TO PREACH

2 Timothy 4: 6, 7

Introduction:

1. Many have given their lives for Christ. Even today we can see about us the scores of men and women who have worn themselves out in service to Christ.
2. To be permitted to preach just one more sermon would be cause for serious meditation.
3. If I knew that this would be the last sermon I ever preached I believe these are the things I would say.

Body:

I. God is.
A. God is creator.
2. We are His creatures and He deserves our praise and service.
B. God is perfect.
2. Man, governments, and social orders are imperfect.
C. God is good, Psalm 25: 8.
D. God is true, John 17: 3.
E. God is just, Deuteronomy 32: 4.
F. God is love, 1 John 4: 8.
II. Man is lost without God.
   A. There is no hope for man without Christ, the Son of God, Ephesians 2: 12.
   B. There is salvation in no other name, Acts 4: 12.
   C. 2 Thessalonians 1: 7-9.

III. God gave man a way of escape.
   A. God so loved the world He gave His Son, John 3: 16.
   B. He loved us while we were yet sinners, Romans 5: 8.
   C. Christ is the Way, the Truth, and the Life, John 14: 6.
      1. Christ gave the way of salvation.
      2. He promised to build the church, Matthew 16: 18.
      4. He is head of the church, Colossians 1: 18.
      5. The plan of salvation.
         a. Hear the Word, Romans 10: 17.
         b. Believe, Mark 16: 16.
         d. Confess, Matthew 10: 32.
         e. Be baptized, Acts 2: 38.

Conclusion;
   1. If this was the only sermon you would ever live to hear what would you do about it?
   2. Come now and respond to the Word of God.
OUR UNION WITH CHRIST

Galatians 2: 20

Introduction:
1. These are remarkable words.
2. They seem paradoxical; how could one be crucified yet live?
3. It means that all life in me is from Christ.

Body:

1. The nature of this union with Christ.
   A. We are united with Him while we are yet on this earth.
      1. The branch abides in the vine; life flows in the sap.
      2. So the Christian abides in Christ and has life.
      3. The fruit of the vine is borne on the branches.
      4. So Christ bears fruit through us (what a great privilege).
   B. We are members of His body, Romans 12: 4, 5.
      1. The hand and foot, etc., are members of the human body.
      2. So we are members of the body of Christ.
   C. We are members of the same family.
      1. There is love and affection with a family.
      2. Christ is the great family head.
         a. He loves the members of His family.
         b. He guides and counsels them.
II. The comforts of this Union.
   A. In this union with Jesus we find all the comfort of home.
      1. The love of family and friends.
      2. The security of being a member of the body.
   B. What happens to us happens to Him, as all the body suffers when one member is injured.
   C. We have a strong defense in Him.
      1. Jesus is involved in all our honors, or in all our wrongs.
      2. "He who wrongs my family wrongs me."

III. Our treatment of Jesus.
   A. We sing, "Oh, How I Love Jesus."
      1. Our love is measured by our conduct, John 14: 21.
      2. If we mistreated our mates it would mean we did not love them.
   B. How would we treat Jesus if He were here?
      1. How would we treat great men?
      2. We would adore Him, as Mary and Martha did.
   C. He is here in His followers, Matthew 25: 40.
      1. While we are not to worship or adore His followers, we are to love and respect them.
      2. That includes the poorest and the weakest.

Conclusion:
   1. There are wonderful results of this union. What glorious privileges we have. To be in Christ lifts us up.
   2. It brings us up to a higher standard of life, with grandeur of character and joy of fellowship.
   3. This union with Him here means union with the whole family in Heaven. How glorious! If we are happy here, what must it be yonder, with the angels, the redeemed, God, and in eternal glory?
ONE THING

B. We would be humble and confess our sins like the prodigal; not the confession of a sinner, but of a child, Luke 15: 11-32.

   b. In the summer, it could be the hot weather.
   c. The lazy and indifferent man will have his lions whatever they may be.

Body:

   2. It's no use, I'm already marked.
   3. I'll be judged because of my friends.

   4. If I admit I'm wrong people will look down on me.

3. The "lions" are imaginary — the need for obeying the truth of God is real.
WHY BE A FAILURE?

   Romans 12: 1, 2.
2. Another is to lay aside every weight, Hebrews 12: 1.
RICH FOOL

Luke 12: 16-21

Introduction:

HINDRANCES TO THE CAUSE OF CHRIST

1 Corinthians 9: 12

Introduction:
1. That the church is becoming internally soft is no longer in question.
2. Soft preaching has caused the members to become soft in living.
   a. Most of us know that there are members of the church who are doing things that cast reproach on the cause, because they do not know any better.
   b. There are also those who know better and do not care.
3. It will be our purpose at this time to consider some of the things that are hurting and hindering the cause of Christ.

Body:

There are some things about which there is no doubt.

A. Christians cannot live ungodly lives without hindering the cause of Christ.
   1. The Christian must consider his speech.
      a. Matthew 12: 34.
   2. Participating in wrongdoing, while claiming to be a Christian, is a hindrance to the cause of Christ.
   b. James 1: 22.

B. Lukewarm living hinders the cause of Christ.
   1. Failure to attend all church services, Hebrews 10: 25.

      2. 1 Corinthians 6: 12.
Conclusion:

1. These are some of the things being done by members of the church that hinder the cause of Christ.
2. Let's begin to help the cause of Christ by correcting the weaknesses in our lives.
THE CHURCH AND WORLDLINESS

1 John 2: 15-17

Introduction:

1. The word "church" is from the Greek word which means "called out."
   b. 1 Thessalonians 2: 14.
2. The word "worldliness" is not a Biblical term. The nearest we find to it is in Titus 2: 12, "worldly lusts."
   What some term worldliness others do not so designate.

Body:

I. The church must be kept pure.
   A. When the purity of the church is corrupted by worldliness its identity is destroyed. The line of distinction must be kept clear between the church and the world. There are certain principles by which we can determine what is worldly and what is permissible.
   B. Church members, those who are Christians, must not go back into the world,
      1. Romans 12: 2.
      2. James 1: 27.

II. Let's look at some things that come under the term "worldliness".

A. Things forbidden by a "thus saith the Lord" are wrong, such as the things listed in Galatians 5: 19-21.

B. Whatever violates the law of the land is wrong,
unless there is a conflict with God's law.
   2. 1 Peter 2: 13-17.
   3. This would include gambling, violating game laws, evading income taxes, etc. Whatever is for-bidden by law is wrong.

C. Whatever is dishonest is wrong.
   1. 2 Corinthians 8: 21.
   2. Romans 12: 17.
   3. Any deception in trading, buying, selling, etc., is worldliness.

D. Immodesty is worldliness.
   1. 1 Timothy 2: 9.
   2. Swimming suits, halter tops, short skirts, and shorts are not modest apparel.

E. Things that cause one to be regarded as a sinner, and things that destroy one's identity as a Christian are worldliness.
   1. A Christian cannot frequent places with a worldly reputation without damaging his Christian identity.
   2. A Christian cannot participate with friends in worldly activities without being considered one of them.

F. Whatever weakens a Christian's influence for good,
or brings reproach on the church or on self is
   worldliness.
   1. Philippians 2: 15.

G. Whatever is doubtful, as a rule is worldliness.
   1. Romans 14: 23.
   2. Where there is doubt, don't.

H. Whatever hinders the Christian from doing his duty is worldliness.
   2. Romans 12: 1.
   3. The Christian must be careful about jobs, trips, activities, etc., that would take him from worship
or interfere with his service to God.
Things that are known to be harmful to the body, to the mind, or to the soul, are worldly.
1. 1 Corinthians 6: 19, 20.
2. 1 Corinthians 10: 31.
3. It is important for the Christian to avoid such things as drugs, alcohol, and tobacco.
Things that plant evil thoughts in the heart, and have a tendency to tempt, and suggest evil, are worldly.
3. 2 Corinthians 7: 1.
4. Dancing, and suggestive movies, pictures and books, can be a bad influence on the Christian.

Conclusion:
1. If and when at any time the church becomes so much like the world that it cannot be distinguished from it, it is worldly.
2. We must therefore strive to keep the church pure.
HOW TO WALK (No. 1)

Ephesians 4: 1; Colossians 1: 10; 1 Thessalonians 2: 12

Introduction:

1. Do you remember the first steps your baby took? How you had worked, been patient to teach and train it to walk.
   a. At times the steps were uncertain and wobbly.
   b. Many times there was stumbling, falling, and getting up to keep on trying to walk.
2. The child of God or babe in Christ does the same.
3. As time passes the child of God learns to walk in a manner pleasing to God.
4. This is a matter of growth.
5. The Bible speaks of walking in a worthy manner three times.

Body:

1. We are to walk worthy of the vocation wherewith we are called, Ephesians 4: 1.
   A. Our daily walk is to correspond with our calling.
   B. We were called of Christ, therefore should walk in Him.
   C. He walked in meekness and humility, Matthew 11: 29.
II. We are to walk with lowliness and meekness, longsuffering, forbearance, endeavoring to keep unity in the bond of peace, Ephesians 4: 2, 3.

A. This walking is to be in lowliness and meekness.
   1. We should have a sense of our own moral smallness and demerit.
   2. We need to walk in lowliness from the standpoint of guilt and weakness.

B. Man walks in lowliness when he is aware he might fall.
   1. 1 Corinthians 10: 12.

C. Meekness could be translated in our language as "softness", "mildness", "gentleness."
   1. It is the disposition of mind in which we are able to bear without irritation or resentment the faults and injury of others.
   2. In the face of this understanding we need to pray that more and more of us will acquire this trait as we walk for God.

D. Longsuffering is patience, "A disposition which leads to the suppression of anger." — Hodge.
   1. God was longsuffering with Abraham in his pleading for the city of Sodom, Genesis 18: 23-33.
   2. It is longsuffering to continually forgive one who has sinned against us, Matthew 18: 21, 22.

E. Forbearing one another in love means holding each other up; bearing with the other.

F. We are to endeavor to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace.
   1. Endeavoring means earnestly trying.
   2. "Earnestness of thought and exertion to secure a thing not lightly obtained." — Ellicott.
   3. Unity means agreement.
   4. Bond means that which binds together.

Conclusion:

1. The bond of peace is that which results from love, humility, meekness, and mutual forbearance, which is essential to the harmony and growth of Christian men and women.
2. Yes, we must learn to walk one step at a time. That which was weak and unstable will become strong through practice.
3. Are you learning to walk?
HOW TO WALK (No. 2)

Colossians 1: 10; 1 Thessalonians 2: 12; Ephesians 4: 1

Introduction:

1. Walking is vital as far as physical beings are concerned.
   a. What a tragic thing it would be to not be able to walk.
   b. Yet today in our land there are many people who for one reason or another are not able to walk, or who must walk with great difficulty.
   c. What a joy it should be to be able to walk.
2. Last time we studied about how to walk we found that there were many things that we need to learn in this Christian life to walk pleasing to God.
   a. We are to walk worthy of our calling.
   b. We are to walk with lowliness and meekness.
   c. We are to walk in longsuffering, forebearing one another in love.

Body:

I. We are to walk worthy of the Lord, Colossians 1: 10.
   A. Let it not be forgotten that we cannot separate our walk from the will of God.
   B. What does it mean to walk worthy?
      1. We must be a worthy representative of Christ,
Galatians 2: 20.
2. It means living in such a manner that Christ is honored and glorified, Colossians 3: 17.

II. How can we walk worthy of the Lord?
A. Paul gives the answer in three short phrases.
   B. "Unto all pleasing."
      1. This statement does not appear elsewhere in the New Testament.
      2. It does not mean, as we sometimes think, to please all; but rather means pleasing to the Lord in all things.
      3. We see that we are to so walk as to please the Lord, but not out of fear.
         a. Fear is a motive, but not the motive that causes us to walk worthy.
         b. We rather walk because we know we are pleasing the Lord.
      4. We walk pleasing to the Lord because we love Him, 1 Thessalonians 4: 1.
   C. "Being fruitful in every good work."
      1. Being fruitful is evidence of walking worthy of the Lord.
      2. Sometimes we have our own definitions of what "every good work" is.
         a. We think it is Bible study, clean living, attendance at services, etc.
         b. It is more than that; it is even more than the good works listed in Galatians 5: 22, 23.
         c. It is rather that each and every thing we do or enter into is a good work, or, that we produce good in everything that we do.
   D. "Increasing in the knowledge of God."
      1. This is not an intellectual, or worldly knowledge, but a spiritual knowledge that changes and molds.
      2. John 8: 32.
      3. As we learn more we do more for God.
      4. The more we know of God's love, mercy, longsuffering, etc., the better we understand Him and the easier it is to walk worthy of Him.
Conclusion:
1. We have seen another aspect of how we are to walk for the Lord.
2. The following poem by Annie Johnson Flint needs to be remembered.

THE WORLD'S BIBLE

Christ has no hands but our hands
To do His work today,
He has no feet but our feet
To lead men in the way,
He has no tongue but our tongue.
To tell men how He died,
He has no help but our help
To bring them to His side.

We are the only Bible
The careless world will read,
We are the sinner's gospel,
We are the scoffer's creed.
We are the Lord's last message,
Given in deed and word.
What if the type is crooked,
What if the print is blurred?

What if our hands are busy
With other work than His?
What if our feet are walking
Where sin's allurement is?
What if our tongues are speaking
Of things His lips would spurn?
How can we hope to help Him
And hasten his return?

Conclusion:
1. This poem will help us see how we are to walk.

TEACH ME LORD

Teach me, my Lord, to be sweet and gentle in all the events of life.
   In disappointments.
   In thoughtlessness of others.
   In the insincerity of those I trusted.
   In the unfaithfulness of those on whom I relied.
Let me put myself aside,
   To think of the happiness of others.
   To hide my little pains and heartaches.
So that I may be the only one to suffer for them.
Teach me to profit by the suffering that comes across my path.
Let me use it that it may mellow me, not harden and embitter.
That it may make me patient, not irritable.
That it may make me broad in my forgiveness, not narrow, haughty, and overbearing.
May no one be less good for having come within my influence.
No one less pure, less true, less kind, less noble for having been a fellow traveler in our journey towards eternal life.

THE LORD HATH PUT A DIFFERENCE

1 Corinthians 4: 7; Exodus 11: 7

Introduction:

1. Some people apparently do not see any reason for a difference between Christians and people of the world,
2. The difference between the Israelites and the Egyptians was very marked.
3. The difference between the church and the world is even greater.

Body:

I. There are many respects in which the church and the world differ.
   A. They differ in character.
      1. Originally there was no difference between the Israelites and Egyptians, since all descended from Adam.
      2. As to origin both the world and the church came from God.
      3. There is a distinction.
         a. The church is divine.
            (1) It is the body of Christ, Ephesians 1: 22, 23-
            (2) It was purchased with His blood, Acts 20: 28.
(3) It is a kingdom separate from the world, Colossians 1: 13.

(4) It was not a man-made difference, but a God-made difference.
b. The difference is internal.
   (1) There is no change in physical makeup.
   (2) The change is not in outward appearance.
   (3) The change is inward, as those who were dead are now alive.
      (a) Romans 6: 11.
      (b) Ephesians 3: 16.
c. It is a great difference.
   (1) There is as much difference between the church and the world as between light and darkness, John 1: 5.
   (2) There is as much difference as between the wolf and the lamb, Luke 10: 3.

B. They differ in their masters.
   1. The world belongs to Satan and those who do not follow God are followers of Satan.
      b. 2 Corinthians 4: 3, 4.
      c. 1 John 5: 19.
   2. Christians are followers of God. Christ is their master and God's Word is their law.

C. They differ in their aim.
   1. The unsaved aim at glory of self, and love of the world, 1 John 2: 15.
   2. The church aims at the glory of God, Colossians 3: 17.

D. They differ in their destiny.
   1. There is a difference in the fate of the world and that of the church, Mark 16: 16.
   2. That difference is the difference between Heaven and Hell.

II. Where is the difference seen?
   A. The difference should be seen in the social life.
      1. 1 John 2: 15.

105
GOD HAS A PLAN
FOR YOUR LIFE TOO!

The Lord had a job for me,
But I had too much to do.
I said, "You get somebody else,
Or wait till I get through."
I don't know how the Lord came out —
No doubt He got along;
But I felt kind of sneaking, like:
I knew I'd done God wrong.

One day I needed the Lord —
Needed Him right away;
But He never answered me at all,
And I could hear Him say
Down in my accusing heart;
"Child, I've got too much else to do;
You get somebody else,
Or wait till I get through."

Now when the Lord has a job for me,
I never try to shirk.
I drop what I have on hand
And do the Lord's good work.
And my affairs can run along
Or wait till I get through;
For nobody else can do the work
That God's marked out for you.

-Paul Lawrence Dunbar-
INTRODUCTION:

1. It is necessary to recite this text from memory since my Bible has so many binds on it that it is a closed book.
2. Many would say my Bible is not bound. It may be and you may not even recognize it.
3. Let's note some ways the Bible may be bound.

BODY:

I. God's desire is for an open book.
   A. The Bible will do no good unless it is open and available to the hearts of the people, Acts 17: 11.
   B. Paul told Timothy that the Word of God is not bound.
      1. The man may be bound, but not the message.
      2. Not enough armies have ever marched to close the Bible to the people.
      3. Yet, a single individual can shut the blessings of the Book from his own life by various binds on it.

II. There are many binds on the Bible.
   A. It is closed to many because of indifference.
      1. There are not many today like those in Acts 17: 11.
      2. The best meeting is one where people are aroused to study.
3. The curse of the world today is unconcern.

B. The Bible is shut by laziness.
1. 1 Timothy 4: 13.
2. God's children must be diligent.
3. They need to be given wholly to the work.
4. All attendance, especially to Bible classes, could be increased if people were not so lazy.

C. The blessings of the Bible are bound to some because of the doctrines of men.
2. 2 John 9, 10.
   a. The argument is that these doctrines say the same thing that is in the Bible.
   b. If so, why not just got to the Bible, instead of to the creed?

D. Lack of faith is a bind to some.
2. Not all men believe who read and hear.
3. Yet, all men must hear in order to believe, but the Bible is a closed book to those who read in doubt.

E. The lids of God's Book are tied tight to some by spiritual blindness.
2. Isaiah 59: 10.
3. We need open hearts as we read and study the Bible.
4. There are none so blind as those who will not see.

F. Stubbornness is a stout cord that binds the Book for many, Romans 1: 28.

III. The blessings of the Bible cut free all binds.
A. It is a light to guide us, Psalm 119: 105.
B. Its message is God's power to save, Romans 1: 16.
C. Its promises cheer us, 2 Corinthians 1: 20.

Conclusion:
1. Don't let the Bible be bound for you.
2. Come respond to His word.
Note: Have a copy of the Bible tied with all of the above binds and cut them loose as you discuss each one.
CHILDISH THINGS

1 Corinthians 13: 11

Introduction:
1. In this passage we see the apostle Paul referring to things which should be put away when one becomes full grown.
2. He refers to a child as one who is half informed and underdeveloped; one whose understanding is feeble and imperfect; one who has a narrow and imperfect view of things, and who knows little.

THE CHURCH THAT WAS SAVED
BY GRACE AND FELL

Ephesians 2: 8, 9

Introduction:

1. There is a common teaching among certain religious people that you can not fall.
2. To them this is a wonderful teaching. If they do sin, they think that God will not let them sin unto death,
3. Some teach that you cannot sin at all. Others teach that if sin is committed it is the body that sins and not the spirit.
4. We want to notice what the Bible has to say about a group that was saved and fell.

Body:

I. We are saved by grace, Ephesians 2: 8, 9.

A. Grace teaches and brings salvation, Titus 2: 11, 12.
   1. Grace teaches us to deny ungodliness and worldly lusts.
   2. That by doing so we should live soberly, righteously, and godly.
B. Salvation is by grace through faith, Romans 10: 17.
   1. First comes hearing the word of truth, Ephesians 1: 13; John 17: 17.
   2. The word of truth is the gospel of salvation, Ephesians 1: 13; Romans 1: 16.

      (1) Romans 6: 3, 4.
      (2) Galatians 3: 27.

II. "Thou art fallen, " Revelation 2: 1-5.
   A. "Thou hast left thy first love, " Revelation 2: 4.
   B. "Do the first works, " Revelation 2: 5.
      1. "I know thy labor, " Revelation 2: 2.
      2. "I know thy patience, " Revelation 2: 2.
      3. "Thou canst not bear them which are evil, " Revelation 2: 2.
      4. "Thou hast tried them which say they are apostles, " Revelation 2: 2.
   C. "I will remove thy candlestick EXCEPT THOU REPENT, " Revelation 2: 5.

Conclusion:

Thus we see that the church at Ephesus was saved by grace according to the Bible teaching of grace, BUT, that they fell and were to be lost unless they repented.
In our lesson we have noted two things:
   a. Saved by grace does not mean by grace unconditionally.
   b. A saved church or people can be lost.
TELL US PLAINLY

I. Too much in the world is not told plainly.
   A. Religious leaders will not tell their members plainly what they stand for.
   B. They try to cloud the issue.

II. Some things need to be told plainly.
   A. Is there a way to Heaven?
      1. It was prophesied seven hundred years before Christ came, Isaiah 35: 8, spoken about.

   3. 1 Thessalonians 5: 22.
G. Is it very important to attend the services of the church?
3. Attending services is one of the greatest helps in spiritual growth.
   a. When a child of God misses several services in a row, it is much easier to do so next time.
   b. Faithful attendance provides food for growth.
   c. Those that miss services are usually those who do not study at home, so they are poor in spiritual condition.

Conclusion:
1. It is necessary to tell people PLAINLY.
2. You can see what you must do; will you do it?

HOW TO DISOBEY GOD

Introduction:
1. It seems rather foolish to preach a sermon telling people how to do something that they know how to do so well.
2. This sermon is not to tell you how to disobey God, and encourage you in disobedience, but rather to help you classify your disobedience to God.
3. Many disobey without realizing it, and many others are ignorantly led into disobedience.
4. It is my desire that you will be able to recognize disobedience to God after this sermon.

Body:
I. We either obey or disobey God; there is no middle ground.
   A. We can choose to serve or not, Joshua 24: 15.
   B. We are either for the Lord or against Him.
   C. There is no middle ground.
      1. You can't ride the fence.
      2. You are either on the Lord's side, or on the Devil's side.

II. Let's look at some ways in which God is disobeyed.
A. Adam and Eve disobeyed God by obeying Satan.
   1. God told them if they ate of the tree they would die, Genesis 2: 17.
   2. Satan told them they would not die, Genesis 3: 4.
   3. They ate and had to pay the price.
      a. They were put out of the garden.
      b. They did suffer death.
   4. We can disobey God today by obeying Satan and in like manner have to pay the penalty.

B. King Saul disobeyed God by obeying the voice of the people.
   1. God told Saul to destroy the Amalekites, 1 Samuel 15: 3.
   2. Saul spared the king, and the choice flocks.
      a. He said the people wanted him to.

      c. He even murdered Christians with the consent of his conscience, Acts 22: 4.

D. God can be disobeyed by adding to or taking away from His Word.
   1. We are told not to add to God's Word.
      b. 2 John 9-11.
   2. Here are some examples of how this can be done.
      b. Instrumental music in worship, Ephesians 5: 19.

   3. We are told not to take away from the Word of God.

b. One example would be not regularly celebrating the Lord's supper, Acts 20: 7.

E. God is disobeyed when something is substituted for what He has commanded.
   1. Baptism is commanded.
      a. Mark 16: 16.
      c. Sprinkling and pouring are substitutes.
   2. Some Christians try to substitute club or lodge work for church work, Colossians 3: 17.

F. God is disobeyed when man's doctrines are taught concerning the plan of salvation.
   1. Some teach we are saved by faith only, James 2: 24.
   2. Others teach that we are saved before baptism and that we can be baptized if we want to, or we can be baptized into church fellowship.
      a. Mark 16: 16.
      b. 1 Peter 3: 21.

Conclusion:

   1. We have noted some ways that people disobey God.

THREE MARKS OF
A STRONG CHURCH

Ephesians 6: 10

Introduction:
1. There is no need so great as having a strong church.
2. The church will be as strong as its members.
3. It should be our constant aim to build and strengthen the church.
4. There are several marks of a strong church, but we want at this time to consider three.

Body:
1. Vision.
   A. Proverbs 29: 18.
      2. Vision is looking ahead; planning for the future.
   B. There are several aspects of vision.
      1. The need must be realized.
      2. Opportunities must be recognized.
      3. Plans must then be made.
   C. Vision is needed in several areas.
      1. Construction of a larger and better meeting place might be planned.
a. It would increase the church's effectiveness.
b. It would provide incentive for growth.
2. There is a need for more men and women to develop into Bible class teachers.
3. There is need for more elders and deacons, and these must be trained to do the work.
4. There is need for members who will work from house to house.

II. Consecration.
A. Examples of consecration.
B. Purity must be involved in consecration.
   1. Purity must be complete, 1 Timothy 5: 22.
   2. The church must be pure as husband and wife are pure, Ephesians 5: 23-33.

      b. Purity is learned through patience.
      c. Purity is supported by prayer, 1 Timothy 2: 8.
      d. Purity is strengthened by discipline, 2 Thessalonians 3: 6.
C. Consecration involves putting first things first, Matthew 6: 33,
   1. Make the right choice between Bible study or pleasure, Psalm 1: 2.
   2. Choose prayer over play.

   a. Vision — the ability to look forward in the work of the church.
   b. Consecration — we must be devoted; set aside to God.
   c. Service to God and our fellow man.
2. Have you as an individual helped to have this? If you have not done your part, then you are erring.

THE SACRED BOOK

I love the sacred Book of God,
   No other can its place supply.
It points me to the saints' abode,
   And bids me from destruction fly.

Sweet Book! In thee my eyes discern
   The image of my absent Lord.
From thy instructive page I learn
   The joys his presence will afford.

But while I'm here Thou shalt supply
   His peace and tell me of His love.
I'll read with faith's discerning eye,
   And thus partake of joys above.

THE BIBLE OUR ONLY GUIDE

1 Peter 4: 11

Introduction:

1. We take the Bible, and the Bible only, as our guide.
2. If the Bible is our only guide, we need to know it, John 8: 32.
3. The expression, "We speak where the Bible speaks and are silent where the Bible is silent" did not originate with Alexander Campbell, as many think, but with a Presbyterian preacher in Scotland by the name of George Campbell.

Body:

1. It is important to rightly divide the Word, 2 Timothy 2: 15.
   A. The Bible deals with man over a period of at least six thousand years.
      1. The law of God has not always been the same.
         a. Noah, Abraham, and Moses had laws from God to live by.
         b. The laws they had do not tell us what to do to be saved.
         a. He mentions three major divisions: Laws, Psalms, and Prophets.
         b. The books of Law include the five books of Moses and twelve books of History.
c. Psalms would include the five books of Poetry.

d. There are seventeen books of Prophets.

B. The Bible contains sixty-six books, written by about forty men over a period of approximately sixteen hundred years.

II. The Old Testament.
A. Let's look again at the three main divisions: Law, Psalms, Prophets.
B. Make a comparison to the books of a lawyer, or doctor.
   1. Law.
      a. Books of law would be books on government.
      b. The books of history would be books on those laws in effect.
   2. The books included in the heading "Psalms" would compare to books of Poetry, advice for daily living, marriage, etc.
   3. The books of Prophets would be like books of maps, showing people where they are, and telling them how to get to where they want to go, and where they will end up if they take the wrong way.
C. The denominational world knows little about the divisions of the Bible.
   1. Some would go back to Old Testament precepts to find out what to do to be saved.
   2. They have little conception of Paul's charge to Timothy, 2 Timothy 2: 15.
D. What if a sinner wants to know what to do to be saved, and is told just to read his Bible and find out, without being told that the old Law was given to the Jews?
   1. He would read that they had to be circumcised.
   2. He would also read that they were commanded to offer animal sacrifices.
E. Suppose a Christian asks about what to do to lead a Christian life, and is told to read the Bible to find out, without being told what part of it applies to the Christian life?
   1. He might read about Solomon and his many wives.

2. He would read about keeping the Jewish feast days, and the Sabbath.

F. None of these things tells a person how to be saved or how to live a Christian life.
1. The Old Testament does not give the plan of salvation for people today.
2. It is necessary to do what Paul told Timothy to do: Rightly divide the Word.

A. The first division is the Gospels, which tell the story of Christ and the cross, John 20: 30, 31.
B. The book of Acts is the book of history, and man wanting to know what he must do to be saved can turn there, and see what the men and women then did.
1. The book of Acts tells us how the apostles carried out the commands of Jesus.
2. If we do these same things, we can be pleasing to God, as the people then were.
   a. They told the people to hear, Acts 15: 7.
   b. They told the people to believe, Acts 16: 31.
   c. They told the people to repent, Acts 17: 30.
   d. They told the people to confess, Romans 10: 9-10.
   e. They told the people to be baptized, Acts
      2: 38.
3. Some might say it is confusing.
   a. Not everyone is told everything.
   b. No confusion at all, because what each was told depended on the stage of their knowledge.
C. The Epistles are the next division.
1. Paul wrote fourteen, James one, Peter two, John three, and Jude, one.
2. They tell us how to live and govern our lives in service to Christ.
D. Revelation is the final division of the New Testament.
1. It lifts the veil and gives us a picture of the Holy City, the New Jerusalem, Heaven.
2. We see a picture of the victory of the righteous over the wicked.
3. It tells us of the place we all long to go.

Conclusion:
1. We can see how wonderful a book the Bible is.
2. We also can see the importance of knowing the Book and dividing it correctly.

         every service.
      b. We have not sacrificed when we just give as we have been blessed.
4. Christians must go forward in their giving.
   a. More time should be given to personal work, teaching; any work of the church.
   b. Christians must grow in the use of their talents for the Lord.
   c. They must also grow in giving their money.
      (1) 1 Corinthians 16: 2.

GIVE WHAT YOU HAVE

Acts 3: 6

Introduction:

1. In the phrase, "What I have, I give," lies the center of this entire lesson.

2. God demands no more of us than what we have.
   a. All blessings flow to us, are to flow through us, gain force from us, and flow on in refreshings beyond us.
   b. If you recognize the fact that you have certain abilities, you must use them.
      (1) If you are able to give, you must give.
      (2) If you are able to teach, you must teach.
      (3) If you have the ability to sympathize, you must sympathize.
      (4) If you are able to cheer others, then you must bring cheer to others.
   c. Upon you rests the responsibilities to do the things you are able to do.
   d. Such as you have, by the grace of God, you must be ready to use and spend in service to Him, Romans 12: 1.

3. Peter and John find the lame man sitting at the gate, begging. He expects money, but they are willing to give what they have. What they gave was more valuable to him than money; Peter and John had something to give, and they gave it.

   B. Most of great work of the church is accomplished by the work of people cooperating with small gifts.
   C. Each one has time, and a fine lesson can be learned from these words.

B. What does giving do to the man who gives?
   1. Giving makes a better man; it softens the heart.
   2. It causes one to think of another who is in need.
   3. It helps make brothers of men, and assists in making one Christ-like.

   1. 2 Corinthians 8: 5.
   2. If we give ourselves to the Lord there will not be any question in our minds as to how LITTLE we should give.
   3. Christians will give until the need is met and go above that amount.

   3. There are those who could give time.
      a. They could make calls, teach others, visit the sick.
      b. They could do work at the building.
   4. Let us begin now to do what we know we should for the Lord and His church.

ILLUSTRATIONS

"After a charity-sermon in Edinburgh, one of the congregation by accident, put a crown-piece in the plate, instead of a penny, and, staring back at its white and precious face, asked to have it back. But he who held the place said, 'In once, in forever.' 'A weel, a weel,' grunted the unwilling giver, 'I'll get credit for it in heaven. ' 'Na, na,' said the collector, 'Ye'll get credit only for the penny.'"

"A missionary was asking for help in spreading the gospel, when a native with a wooden leg came forward, and laying down three parcels, said, 'That's for my wife, and that's for my child,' in all thirteen dollars. When asked if he was not giving too much, he replied, 'God's work must be done, and I may be dead.'"

"Some men give so that you are angry every time you ask them to contribute. They give so that their gold and silver shoot you like a bullet. Others persons give with such beauty that you remember it as long as you live; and you say, 'It is a pleasure to go to such men.' There are some men that give as springs do; whether you go to them or not, they are always full; and your part is merely to put your dish under the ever-flowing stream. Others give just as a pump does where the well is dry, and the pump leaks."

JESUS DID NOT QUIT

"Jesus did not quit meeting with His disciples because Judas was a thief, nor because Peter was fickle at times, he did not quit preaching and living right because some of his brethren were unforgiving and unkind. He did not quit His post of leadership because He had in His presence the adulterous woman, a gang of Pharisees, or narrow-minded demon-worshippers. Jesus did not quit.

"Did you quit? What was the reason for it? Any reason you might name, Jesus could have given the same. He had every reason to be discouraged. His own disciples were so slow to learn. His enemies were so bent on His destruction. But He did not quit. He said, 'Know ye not that I must be about my Father's business?' (Luke 2: 49). And when the end of His earthly life was in sight, Jesus said to His Father, 'I have finished the work which Thou gavest me to do' (John 17: 4). He did not quit. He finished His task.

"When you come to the end of life can you say, 'I have finished the work God has given me to do'? Or will you be compelled to say, 'I started, but quit'? Will you stand before the judgment bar of God and admit that you were a quitter? Eternal life is promised to those who endure to the end (Matthew 10: 22). There will be no consolation in the judgment day to point back to your baptism unless you can also point back to a life of faithful endurance."

-Raymond C. Kelcy-

A Willing church is a loving church, for if we are doing His will we love each other with unfeigned love and even those out of Christ because we do not want them to be lost (1 Peter 1: 22).
HOW TO OVERCOME FEAR

Psalm 34: 4

Introduction:

1. Fear and unrest are ever present in the world.
2. Fear is an enemy of Christians.
3. The followers of Christ today have "Fear for the body, fear of sickness, fear for the mind, fear of poverty, fear of losing the job, fear of criticism, fear of temptation, fear of the consequence of wrongdoing, fear of loneliness, fear of old age, fear of the past, fear of things present and things to come, and fear of death." -C. E. Macartney.
4. We could add fear of not being saved, of enemies, and fear of trials.

Body:

I. What is fear?
   A. According to Webster, fear is, "A painful emotion marked by alarm, dread, and disquiet; also, an instance of this feeling."
   B. There are many children of God that are constantly beset with dread and disquiet. This should not be. Where have we failed in this matter?

II. What do you fear?
   A. Do you fear any of the things we've already mentioned?
   B. Is there any place in the life of a child of God for
III. Why do you fear?

A. Fear is brought about by a lack of faith.
   1. When the disciples were with Christ in the boat and the storm came up, they were afraid, Matthew 8: 25.
   2. Jesus said, "Why are you afraid, oh you of little faith?" Matthew 8: 26.

B. Where there is trust, there is no fear, Isaiah 12: 2.
C. Where there is true love there is no fear, 1 John 4: 18.

Conclusion:

1. How can fear be overcome?
   a. We must realize that God did not give us fear, 2 Timothy 1: 7.
   b. We should go to God for all we need, Philippians 4: 6.

2. We need faith as is expressed in this hymn.

   OH FOR A FAITH

   Oh for a faith that will not shrink,
   though pressed by every foe;
   That will not tremble on the brink
   of any earthly woe.
   That will not murmur or complain
   beneath the chastening rod,
   But in the hour of grief or pain
   will lean upon its God.
   Lord give me such a faith as this;
   and then, what-e'er may come,
   We'll taste, e'en here, the hallowed bliss
   of an eternal home.

3. Now let's sing "I Know Whom I Have Believed."
FIVE SOLEMN FACTS

2 Corinthians 5: 10

Introduction:
1. There are many things that are very solemn and sad such as: We may have just a few more days or months to live — then DEATH.
2. But even this is not as solemn as some of the things connected with the judgment.

Body:

I. All will not be saved.
A. There is no such thing as universal salvation. This is just a false doctrine taught by the universalists.
B. All will appear before Him:
C. "Not everyone that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven...", "
   Matthew 7: 21.

II. The majority will be lost.
A. This is not a pleasant thing to preach, but it is the truth! Cf. Matthew 7: 13.

2. Genesis 19: 1 ff. Three were saved from the destruction of Sodom and Gomorrah.

III. Many will perish that expect to be saved.
A. This is a sad fact, perhaps the saddest of all, but it is true.
   1. Among these will be many "religious" people.
   4. It will be tragic to think you are saved and then be lost. Therefore, make it as sure as you can!

B. We must have an active religion if we would be saved.
   1. James 1: 22.

IV. There is no salvation after death.
A. Regardless of the teachings of various religious groups today man will not be given another chance after death to be saved.
   1. According to the Bible, it is now or never.
   2. If there is no judgment, then there will be no Hell. If no hell to fear, then what is there to worry about; thus, what is the use?
   3. 1 Corinthians 15: 13, 14.

B. Notice the following passages:
   1. 2 Corinthians 6: 2.
   2. Philippians 2: 12.

V. This may be the last opportunity for someone present.
A. No man has assurance of tomorrow.
3. 1 Thessalonians 5: 2.

B. God is bidding that YOU might come unto Him.

C. Why not accept Christ your Saviour?
1. He died for you, 1 Peter 2: 24.
2. You must obey Him, Romans 6: 17.
   a. Hear — Matthew 17: 5; Romans 10: 17.
   d. Confess — Matthew 10: 32; Romans 10: 10.

D. Does the cross mean nothing to you? Cf. 1 Corinthians 1: 18.

3. 2 Corinthians 5: 10.
