

Questions on Colossians

Chapter 1

1. What other form of name for Timotheus?
2. To whom is this epistle addressed?
3. Repeat the usual benediction.
4. What does Paul give on account of them?
5. What else does he do for them?
6. Any evidence he had seen these brethren?
7. What had he heard concerning them?
8. State what he says about their hope.
9. How generally had this hope been made known?
10. Had it been fruitful?
11. What was Epaphras to the church?
12. State what he had informed Paul about.
13. What was the desire for which Paul prayed?
14. For whose pleasure would he have them walk?
15. For what end should they be strengthened?
16. What inheritance does Paul mention?
17. From what have we been delivered?
18. Is kingdom of Christ in existence now?
19. Who is the one to admit people into it?
20. What do we have through the blood of Christ?
21. Redemption from what?
22. Of whom is Christ the image?
23. What creatures were before Christ?
24. State his part in creation.
25. What dependence do all have on him?
26. State his relation to the Church.
27. In what sense is he firstborn from the dead?
28. What distinction does this give him?
29. State what God further was pleased to have.
30. What was effected through the blood?
31. What was to be done with all things?
32. Was this restricted to things on earth?
33. By what are men alienated from God?
34. By what body may they be reconciled?
35. In what condition would he present them?

36. This depends upon what continuance?
37. What had the Colossians heard?
38. To what extent had this been preached?
39. What commission does this fulfill?
40. Did Paul have anything to do with it?
41. In what does he now rejoice?
42. What does it fill up?
43. When did he get "behind" in the sufferings?
44. Who made Paul a minister of the Gospel?
45. What had been the state of the divine mystery?
46. Is it still hidden?
47. To what nations was it to be made known?
48. To what attainment does the hope look?
49. What does Paul do to every man?
50. For what purpose does he labor with men?

Chapter 2

1. What would he have them know?
2. Was this a conflict of the body?
3. To whom else did he extend this care?
4. Did he care for any whom he had not seen?
5. State what he was anxious about for them.
6. What should be acknowledged?
7. Tell what are his with Christ.
8. For what safeguard is this statement given?
9. In what sense is Paul present with these brethren?
10. What does he rejoice in beholding?
11. State the quality of their faith.
12. How should they walk?
13. What is necessary to be established in the faith?
14. How might they be spoiled?
15. From what source are these elements?
16. What dwells in Christ?
17. How does this leave those out of Christ?
18. What is said about completeness?
19. How extensive is his headship?
20. What sort of circumcision is now necessary?
21. What is to be put off?
22. In what ordinance does this take place?
23. What faith makes this ordinance valid to us?

24. Explain the death and life in 13th verse.
25. What was blotted out?
26. By what instrument was this done?
27. How did this affect powers and authorities?
28. What restriction does this set aside?
29. When had these things been an obligation?
30. In what figure are they here presented?
31. Of what body did they form this figure?
32. How might one be beguiled of his reward?
33. Define this voluntary humility.
34. Did these people actually worship angels?
35. State their frame of mind.
36. What important being have they left?
37. What is to be derived from this head?
38. State the manner of increase following.
39. With whom should we be dead?
40. From what are we dead?
41. Had these ever been rudiments from God?
42. Why call them rudiments of the world?
43. Explain such rudiments as found in verse 21.
44. What is the fate of such rudiments?
45. By whose commandment are they now practiced?
46. Do these things have any favorable appearance?
47. What kind of worship is will worship?
48. What word here refers to the system of self-torture?
49. What satisfaction was all this for?
50. Does Paul give any honor to this practice?

Chapter 3

1. With whom are Christians risen?
2. What conduct is pointed out to follow?
3. What things will this be seeking?
4. Is it natural to love heavenly things?
5. What must be done about the affections?
6. In what sense are Christians dead?
7. Who holds the life?
8. When will it be manifested?
9. What is the meaning of "mortify"?
10. What is inordinate affection?
11. Tell what is associated with idolatry.

12. What do such things bring?
13. On whom do they bring it?
14. When had they walked in these evil things?
15. Distinguish anger, wrath, malice.
16. Define "filthy communication."
17. What must be done with all these things?
18. Why not lie to one another?
19. What has been put on?
20. State the nature of the renewing.
21. What place is antecedent of "where" verse 11?
22. Are Jews and Greeks barred from this relation?
23. What principle makes them one and alike?
24. Who are the elect of God?
25. What must they put on?
26. Explain "bowels of mercies."
27. Distinguish humbleness and meekness.
28. Will forbearance require tolerance for error?
29. In what things may we be tolerant?
30. Whose example is cited as motive?
31. What is the final bond of perfection?
32. What kind of peace is to be desired?
33. What should dwell in the lives of saints?
34. By what should they teach and admonish?
35. What kind of songs required?
36. What must regulate our words and deeds?
37. Through what must such name be obtained?
38. Tell what must be given to God.
39. State what is fitting for wives.
40. Would unlawful demands be excepted?
41. Give the requirements for husbands.
42. Obedience of children gives pleasure to whom?
43. Fathers should guard against what?
44. What is the command to servants?
45. Does this refer to temporal masters?
46. Give the meaning of "eye service."
47. In whose fear must service be given?
48. How must the service be performed?
49. From whom will the reward come?
50. How does God regard persons?

Chapter 4

1. What are masters commanded to give?
2. Does this refer to temporal masters?
3. What fact is mentioned as motive for them?
4. In what were they to continue?
5. What must they do as well as pray?
6. For whom should they pray?
7. Why did Paul ask interest in their prayers?
8. What did he wish to speak?
9. Why be concerned about this door?
10. Explain the cause of Paul's bonds.
11. What was his wish about the mystery?
12. For whose consideration should we use wisdom?
13. How must the time be used?
14. How guard the speech?
15. What is the use of salt?
16. What should we know how to accomplish?
17. Tell Paul's estimate of Tychicus.
18. What service was he to render at this time?
19. For what purpose is he to be sent to them?
20. Name another brother associated with him.
21. What was to be their message?
22. Was Paul alone in his bonds?
23. What relative of Barnabas was with Paul?
24. Had Paul always been favorable toward him?
25. How does he wish him to be treated now?
26. On what scriptural grounds could Paul have changed?
27. Of what nationality was this Justus?
28. What had they been to Paul?
29. In what cause had they helped him?
30. What other citizen of theirs was with him?
31. How did he show his interest in them?
32. State his desire for their religious standing.
33. Give Paul's testimony that was for his credit?
34. What was Luke's profession?
35. Does Paul discount his profession?
36. Are such practitioners necessarily frauds?
37. Show Luke's connection with this letter.
38. Did Demas always remain faithful?
39. Can one be faithful and love the world?

40. What brethren also are given respectful mention?
41. Tell what is commanded regarding them.
42. What was in the house of Nymphas?
43. How many are required to compose a church?
44. What should first be done with this epistle?
45. How should it next be used?
46. What further reading is required of them?
47. To whom does Paul send personal word?
48. From whom had he received his ministry?
49. Who signed this epistle?
50. What would he have them bear in mind?